9th SIGSAND/PLAIS EUROSYMPOSIUM on Systems Analysis and Design

INFORMATION SYSTEMS: DEVELOPMENT, RESEARCH, APPLICATIONS, EDUCATION

September 29, 2016
Gdansk, Sopot, POLAND

http://eurosymposium.eu

Background

Systems analysis and design (SAND) has been the central field of research and education in the area of Management Information Systems (MIS) or, as it is called still more frequently in Europe – Business Informatics, almost from its origins. SAND continuously attracts the attention of both academia and business. The rapid progress of information and communication technology naturally generates the requirements for new generations of SAND methods, techniques and tools. Therefore, international thematic conferences and symposia have become widely accepted forums for exchanging of concepts, solutions and experiences in SAND. In particular, the Association for Information Systems (AIS) is undertaking the initiative towards SAND’s international development.

Overview

The EuroSymposium on Systems Analysis and Design has the objective of promoting and developing high quality research on all issues related to systems analysis and design (SAND). It provides a forum to researchers and practitioners in SAND in Europe and beyond – to interact, collaborate and develop the systems analysis and design area. The event has the hybrid form – the accepted papers can be presented at the venue site or by videoconferencing. The EuroSymposium is currently headed by the Advisory Board and International Programme Committee composed of prominent researchers to guide this initiative. Previous EuroSymposia were held at:

- University of Galway, Ireland – 2006
- University of Marburg, Germany – 2008

The accepted papers of Gdansk EuroSymposia were published in Springer LNBIP series.
